

- 67 In case of non-attendance of persons so summoned, others to be summoned, eight to be stricken from panel, by whom
- 68 Jurors to make oath
- 69 Consideration of benefits in assessment of damages, the inquisition to be in writing, signed and sealed by jury, confirmation by court, another to be ordered if set aside by court.
70. What inquisition must contain; when commissioners become entitled, owner may receive valuation without costs at any time after refusal.
- 71 Taxes.
- 72 Appeal from assessment.
- 73 Appointments by commissioners; bailiff to be elected, removable by commissioners; powers and duties; term of office, new election in case of failure to elect; vacancy, how filled.
74. Bailiff's bond.
- 75 His powers to enforce payment of taxes.
- 76 Oath to be taken by commissioners and other officers.
77. Powers of the president, statement to be made by commissioners.
78. Levy by county commissioners to keep streets, as part of county roads, in repair.
79. In case of neglect on part of inhabitants to make elections, power to elect shall not cease; president and commissioners shall hold over.

Charlestown.

80. Commissioners, their election; corporate name; their powers
- 81 Commissioners; necessary qualifications of, vacancies
82. Meetings of commissioners; clerk; bailiff.

83. Public property of the town vested in the commissioners; their powers and duties in regard to it; fines

Chesapeake City.

84. Inhabitants a corporation; name and corporate powers.
- 85 Election of commissioners; who eligible, electors; commissioners, how and when to qualify; president.
86. Elections to fill vacancies; vacancies not to be filled as long as three commissioners shall remain, they to have full powers.
- 87 Elections, how to be conducted; in case of neglect to make an election, power not to cease, existing president and commissioners to hold over.
- 88 Plat of the town to be taken as evidence.
89. Secretary to be also treasurer; his bond, duties and compensation
90. Ordinances to be recorded by him and kept open to inspection
91. Powers of president and commissioners; fines; intoxicated persons.
92. Lock-up or jail.
93. Taxes.
94. Appointment of officers by commissioners, town bailiff; his election, powers and duties; vacancy in office, how filled.
95. Bailiff's bond.
96. Bailiff's powers to enforce payment of taxes, his oath.
97. Streets, lanes and alleys, grading and paving
98. Streets, lanes and alleys, opening new ones, straightening, widening, or removing obstructions from those already established, dispute with owners of land necessary for the purpose, damages and expenses, levy to pay.